Chabad Double Bay	Chanukah at the Bay – Steyne Park – December 2024	Chanukah at the Bay is the Annual Chanukah (The Festival of Lights). This is a family oriented social event where community members of Jewish and non-Jewish backgrounds come together to celebrate the religious aspect of the event and to celebrate freedom and harmony. The event will include live music, carnival rides, games and conclude with a pyrotechnic display.	$7,500
Paddo Collective	Paddo Collective Live Music Week – various venues in Paddington – early 2025	A live music week with individual events to be held in various venues operated by the businesses of Paddo Collective. The purpose of the events are to increase awareness of the businesses that are a part of the Collective and the Paddo Collective precinct, to activate publicly accessible spaces and to enliven and increase activity and to increase foot traffic and spend in the area. The venues will be encouraged to choose locally based artists to perform.	$7,500
Cambridge Markets	Watsons Bay Markets – Robertson Park – September 2024 and February 2025	Two festival style market events with approximately 150 mixed stalls, offering a range of products. There will be stalls including boutique homewares, fashion, art, specialty craft, gourmet foods, children’s wear, toys as well as food and beverages. The aim is to provide a free fun filled event where everyone is welcome from local families to visitors.	$7,500
Queen Street and West Woollahra Association	Community Christmas Carols – Chiswick Gardens – December 2024	The annual Community Christmas Carols event aims to bring together businesses and families within the local area to celebrate the festive season. This is a family friendly event for all members of the community to enjoy. Entertainment will be provided by local choir groups and both adults and children from schools and churches in the area. Food and beverage options will be available including a barbeque provided by nearby restaurant Chiswick. Children’s entertainment will include balloons, face painting and a visit from Santa Claus.	$7,500
Produced By Caroline Kemp Pty Ltd	Hot Jazz Picnic – Lyne Park – February 2025	An Australian picnic-style jazz festival including music, fashion and food, designed to foster shared cultural experiences in an intimate setting. The event will be launched as part of Australian Music month, and is a ticketed event, raising the profile of jazz locally and nationally. This is a family inclusive event with children under the age of 12 able to attend for free. There will be multiple food and beverage options on site and will promote local food businesses and NSW producers.	$7,500
Historic Houses Association	Walking Woollahra - various locations - November and December 2024	Walking Woollahra is a series of walking tours (incorporating bus transfers) to activate and enhance streetscapes and other built environment and encourage protection of local history, heritage values and buildings. The four themed walks will highlight our streetscapes and other built environments in different suburbs and localities and encourage protection of local history, heritage values and buildings. Each walk runs for approximately two hours and is led by a local historian, subject matter expert or other storyteller. Archival photographs and maps, historical records and newspaper articles are used to tell the story of the particular area.	$3,000
Sophie Hatch	Yoga at Gap Park – various dates from October 2024 to March 2025	Free yoga to be held twice per week. A total of 20 classes. The intended outcome is to reinvigorate Gap Park as a community space, which has the dual benefit of ensuring the park is busy during quieter times. The presence of people in the park is a positive factor and it allows people to connect with others in the community through yoga, which has proven mental and physical benefits.	$3,000
Pound Paws	Pound Paws Dog Day at Double Bay – The Sheaf, Double Bay – March 2025	The purpose of the event is to raise awareness on pet adoption and responsible pet ownership. This is a family friendly event and the aim is to educate the community whilst bringing together people and their dogs in a fun and inclusive environment. Local businesses will get involved either as vendors, judges or guests.	$3,500
