

Point Piper

Important information regarding traffic management and local vantage points on New Year's Eve

Dear Residents,

In advance of New Year's Eve, we want to inform you of local road closures, special event clearways and vantage point information so you have time to plan ahead.

NSW Police, authorised traffic controllers and security guards will be managing road closures, clearways, vantage points, Alcohol Free Zones and Alcohol Prohibited Areas in cooperation with Woollahra Council. Police may restrict vehicle access along closed roads as required and in the interest of pedestrian and public safety. For public transport information visit www.transportnsw.info or call 131 500.

Road Closures: 3pm 31 December 2024 to 2am 1 January 2025

St Mervyns Ave	At New South Head Rd
Wolseley Rd	At New South Head Rd
Wunulla Rd	At New South Head Rd

Vehicle access between 3pm and 6pm will be available for residents only, but this access is strictly at the discretion of the Police or authorised traffic controllers.

No vehicle access is permitted to anyone between 6pm and 2am.

Alcohol Prohibited Areas within Woollahra:

12.01am on 31 December 2024 to 12 Midday on 1 January 2025

McKell Park, Rushcutters Bay Park, Yarranabbe Park (Darling Point), Duff Reserve (Point Piper), Murray Rose Pool and Blackburn Gardens (Double Bay), Dumaresq Reserve, Percival Park, Lyne Park, Rose Bay Foreshore and Tingira Memorial Park (Rose Bay), Parsley Bay Reserve and Christison Park (Vaucluse), and Robertson Park (Watsons Bay).

Glassware is not permitted in public parks and reserves.

Alcohol Free Zones:

From 12.01am on 31 December 2024 to 12 midday on 1 January 2025.

There are no designated Alcohol Free Zones (AFZ) in Point Piper.

Visit Council's website www.woollahra.nsw.gov.au/nye for more information on AFZ locations.

Local Vantage Points:

Duff Reserve, Point Piper is a managed site with limited capacity and is an Alcohol Prohibited Area. Lighting is limited at this site, therefore patrons will require a torch to navigate the stairs safely. This site opens at 12 Noon and will be closed once it reaches capacity (maximum 100). For more detailed information on all of our local vantage points please visit www.woollahra.nsw.gov.au/nye

NSW Police will be out in force this New Year's Eve to reduce crime and violence and to ensure everyone in New South Wales can enjoy the New Year's Eve celebrations in a safe and secure environment.

- Do not drink and drive. Catch public transport.
- Do not drink alcohol in the designated Alcohol Free Zones (AFZ) or Alcohol Prohibited Areas (APA). Police can confiscate alcohol and can issue on-the-spot fines to anyone breaching this requirement.

If you need any assistance from the Police over the festive season please call the Police Assistance Line on 131 444 or in an emergency, contact Triple Zero (000). Follow NSW Police on social media and receive regular NYE information updates.

Best wishes to you and yours for a happy New Year's Eve celebration with family and friends.

Tom O'Hanlon
Director Infrastructure and Sustainability
Woollahra Municipal Council

Detective A/Superintendent Adam Solah
Commander
Eastern Suburbs Police Area Command